2022 FIRST SEMESTER REVIEW

Dear Neighbours,

The residential real estate market in Montreal continues to remain dynamic as the economic environment moves into new territory with recent increases in interest rates.

While inventory levels were at an all-time low in 2021, the first six months of this year showed an increase in homes available for sale, which has started to level the playing field between buyers and sellers.

We closely monitor statistics and market indicators that predict the right time to buy and sell. For over 16 years, we've been tracking trends to get a solid, reliable indication of what's to come.

Feel free to give us a call anytime for a confidential appraisal of your home, or to discuss any of your buying needs. We have both residential and commercial experts to assist you.
